Muzinich & Co. Expands their Private Debt Team with a New Hire, covering the North

- Rob Judson joins Muzinich’s UK Private Debt team, based in Manchester
- The hire will strengthen Muzinich & Co’s Private Debt capabilities with a focus on investments in the North of England

London/Manchester

Muzinich & Co. has appointed Rob Judson to its UK Private Debt team, covering the North of England, as the Firm continues to expand and strengthen its Private Debt presence.

Rob joins from Barclays’ Corporate Banking division, where he was a Relationship Director and responsible for originating new business and supporting the structuring and execution of debt transactions in the Technology, Media and Telecoms sectors.

“I’m excited to be joining such an active and regionally-focused lower middle market Private Debt team. I’m looking forward to helping source and arrange growth financing opportunities, and in doing so support businesses in the North and beyond”.

“Rob is a great addition to the team and reflects our commitment to continuing to invest in the North of England and our wider Private Debt platform”, added James Adams, Director for Muzinich UK Private Debt, “The team has been extremely busy over the last 12 months, completing a number of high quality new transactions while continuing to support our portfolio companies in their growth aspirations. Rob’s appointment will further strengthen our capabilities as we look to build on this positive momentum into 2023”
